CELTIC EVENING PRAYER

In this time of the Pandemic, we are changing and being changed.

What once was urgent in our daily lives is now put on pause.

Other more immediate ways of living and dying are transforming us.

As we contemplate and experience our collective living and dying, we pray that we can be even more unified as One in God's Love all across the world.

There is great hope in all that is happening in this world, we embrace it all.

Now in these unprecedented times, our world is hushed . . .

In the quiet and the chaos,
we're witnessing the wellspring of new life, even in the midst of death.

All the world is now, perhaps for the first time ever, singularly focused on the healing of one another and the healing of "this fragile Earth, our island home."

Almost since time began,
this is also the spirit in which our evenings always have begun.
At this holy hour of twilight, we are hushed throughout all time, breathing in more deeply, lighting our candles, pausing at the end of the day together to pray into the love of God's welcoming embrace.

In this widened space at the end of the day,
our prayers encircle the world continuously.
We rest into the power of quietness and the healing touch of God.
As were all those who have gone before us, we too are comforted and calmed at this hour of twilight by candlelight, music and prayer.

The Celtic tradition holds that we find God in Christ in our hearts, in each other, and in all creation.

As always, we welcome all to join with us in these timeless prayers.

So come as you are, let down your burdens,
find your rest in God's expansive Love.
This love is sweeping over you and all of Creation, sweeping 'round and 'round the world
throughout all time and in all places.

Let us pray, this prayer offered up by our friends in Virginia,

Almighty God: Our times are in your hand. We call upon you in this hour of our need, when we are lonely and must stand apart. Be our strength, O Loving God, our calm in the midst of raging seas, our refuge and our dwelling place. Sanctify to us this time drawn away from others, even as your Son, O God of All Creation, drew away to a lonely place for prayer. Deepen our need of you, dear God, that every breath may be a whisper of the Spirit's prompting, a renewed searching of the deep things of God. Stir up in us the great act of intercession, that we may spend our time apart in prayer for the world you created and sustain. Bless us in our turning toward you, and make us a blessing to those who stand in need of you, the whole fragile earth. All this we ask in the name of great Physician our healer, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

With God's help, our gifts become the blessings we seek for the world.

Opening Prayer

Leader: Our spirits hunger for your love, O Divine Maker of hearts, for the taste of your joy and a sense of your peace. May this time of prayer fill us with the whisper of your presence and the touch of your hand upon our hearts. We long for the depths of your love, to know your quiet constancy, the feast of your friendship that feeds us without end. Awaken us to your presence now, this moment, in our hearts. Amen.

A Prayer for the Evening

Leader: Lord, eventide is upon us. It is a time for stillness. Let us be still in the presence of God. Night follows after a long day. What has been done has been done; what has not been done, for now will be left undone; let it be. The night is dark. Let our fears of the darkness of the world and of our own lives rest in you. The night is quiet. Let the quietness of your peace enfold us, all who are dear to us, and all who have no peace. The night heralds the dawn. Let us look to a new day, new joys, new possibilities. The Lord Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.

Leader: Our help is in the Name of the Lord;

People: The maker of heaven and earth.

Leader: Let us confess our hopes to God.

The Confession of Hope

from The Rabbinical Assembly of the United Synagogue of America

*All: We marvel at the mystery of the stars.
Moon and sky, sand and sea.
We marvel at the mystery of the sun.
Twilight, high noon, dusk and dawn.
Though we are mortal, we are Creation's crown.
Flesh and bone, steel and stone.
We dwell in fragile, temporary shelters.
Grant steadfast love, compassion, grace.
Sustain us, Lord; our origin is dust.
Splendor, mercy, majesty, love endure.
We are but little lower than the angels.
Resplendent skies, sunset, sunrise.
The grandeur of Creation lifts our lives.
Evening darkness, morning dawn.
Renew our lives as You renew all time.*

Leader: O God, make speed to save us.

People: O Lord, make haste to help us.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Opening Collect of the Day

Leader: God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray,

Leader: Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

Gospel for the Day Mark 9:2-9

The Message

John the Baptizer

At this time, Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. The moment he came out of the water, he saw the sky split open and God’s Spirit, looking like a dove, come down on him. Along with the Spirit, a voice: “You are my Son, chosen and marked by my love, pride of my life.”

God’s Kingdom Is Here

At once, this same Spirit pushed Jesus out into the wild. For forty wilderness days and nights he was tested by Satan. Wild animals were his companions, and angels took care of him.

After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee preaching the Message of God: “Time’s up! God’s kingdom is here. Change your life and believe the Message.”

Here ends the reading.

Response

All are invited to reflect on the readings with a symbolic action to declare their engagement with their prayers of thanksgiving and concern; be it lighting a candle, meditating, placing stones in sand, ringing a bell, planting seeds, drawing or writing.

Silence: Please add your prayers, either silently or aloud.

Concluding Collect

Leader: You are our shelter, O Lord, a light upon our path, a presence in our darkness, a companion in our travels, there at the journey's end. Hear our prayers and may your mercy be upon us. Amen.

Hymn #662 "Abide with me: fast fall the eventide"

1 A - bide with me: fast falls the e - ven - tide;
 2 I need thy pres - ence ev - ery pass - ing hour;
 3 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless;
 4 Hold thou thy cross be - fore my clos - ing eyes;

the dark - ness deep - ens; Lord, with me a - bide:
 what but thy grace can foil the tempt - er's power?
 ills have no weight, and tears no bit - ter - ness.
 shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;

when o - ther help - ers fail and com - forts flee,
 Who, like thy - self, my guide and stay can be?
 Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy vic - to - ry?
 heaven's morn - ing breaks, and earth's vain sha - dows flee;

help of the help - less, O a - bide with me.
 Through cloud and sun - shine, Lord, a - bide with me.
 I tri - umph still, if thou a - bide with me.
 in life, in death, O Lord, a - bide with me.

Words: Henry Frances Lyte (1793–1847)

Music: Eventide, William Henry Monk (1823–1889)

Closing Prayers please remain seated

Leader: Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;

People: For you have redeemed me, O Lord, O God of truth.

Leader: Keep us, O Lord, as the apple of your eye;

People: Hide us under the shadow of your wings.

Leader: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy,

Leader: Lord, have mercy.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP pg. 364

*Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.*

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

*Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.*

*For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.*

Leader: Lord, Hear our prayer;

People: And let our cry come to you.

Leader: Let us pray.

Leader: Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in your eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Leader: Gracious God, you have called us to serve you.

People: Help us to journey beyond the familiar and into the unknown.

Give us the faith to leave old ways and break fresh ground with You.

*Christ of the mysteries,
we trust You to be stronger than each storm within us.*

We will trust in the darkness and know that our times, even now, are in Your hand.

Tune our spirits to the music of heaven, and somehow, make our obedience count for You. Amen.

Hymn #124 “What star is this, with beams so bright” (st. 4 & 5)

Words: Charles Coffin (1676–1749); tr. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861, after John Chandler (1807–1876), alt.
Music: Puer nobis, melody from Trier MS., 15th cent.; adapt. Michael Praetorius (1571–1621);
harm. Cowley Carol Book, 1902

The Dismissal

Leader: Let us pray.

All: Lord, you now have set your servant free to go in peace as you have promised;

For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, whom you have prepared for all the world to see:

*A Light to enlighten the nations,
and the glory of your people Israel.*

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.*

Leader: Let us bless the Lord,

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: My friends, life is short and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who travel with us, so be quick to love and make haste to be kind. Rest assured that God is infinitely more concerned with our future than our past; may the One Holy and Undivided Trinity bless us along the way and remain with us always. Amen.
